

CDMEC AUTUMN PROGRAMME 2016

September

- 7th Bits and Pieces
- 14th Discussion evening – matters arising from the summer season.
- 21st “Hitler’s V Weapons” – John Pyle
- 28th Archive film footage “Land, Sea and Air – including the PLUTO D Day Pipeline” – Frank Banfield

October

- 5th Bits and Pieces
- 12th “A new look on the B.R. Standards and the new builds” – Russell Newland
- 19th “The Stockwood Discovery Centre’s working collection” Situated near Luton, Stockwood has an interesting collection of steam rollers, stationary engines and steam powered farm equipment. – Phil Russell
- 26th “Entertaining Organs”, A not too serious look at music boxes and the history of mechanical music – Terence Pankhurst

November

- 2nd Bits and Pieces
- 9th “The Woodhead Tunnel – Britain’s first all electric main line Manchester to Sheffield” – Paul Middleton
- 16th “Ten minute videos” Bring along your interesting short films and videos.
- 23rd Auction Evening – Dave Whiting
- 30th We are very fortunate to have Kevin Ball from the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight at Chingford again before he retires. He will be telling us more about working with vintage aircraft.

December

- 7th Bits and Pieces
- 14th Cheese and Wine Evening